

[WaveSauce]

WaveSauce — instrumental pulp, surf, spyfi band offering the unique sounds of the Theremin.

Inspired by ocean surf, space-age science and technology, classic horror, and 60s spy films.

WaveSauce has found influence in The Ventures, Jerry Cole, Dick Dale, The Blue Hawaiians, The Greenhorns, Kraftwerk, Man or Astro-Man.

[out and about]

WaveSauce has received radio play from Tsunami Soul, a surf radio show on WOBC 91.5, Oberlin, Ohio. A Day at The Beach with Clint Beachwood on KRC College Radio, San Diego, California. Various podcast shows in the United States and the United Kingdom.

Live Portland performances include Duff's Garage, The Know, Twilight Cafe and Bar, and more.

[about the band]

Beginning their musical venture as a surf duo, guitarist, Pete Vercellotti (of Pale Blue Sky), and thereminist, Michele "Cookie" Heile (of Jesus Presley) formed WaveSauce in the spring of 2007. WaveSauce became a four-piece in March of 2008 with added bass player James Emond. Drummers include Darrell George or Jason Mockley. WaveSauce is sure to offer a fun, full, and unique listening, and visual, experience.
